Representatives of the group met with Randall County commissioners court Monday.

The group is made up of Tom Herrick, Kenneth Walters, Gene McCartt, Wallace Locke, Bruce Lusk and Jim Man.

The feedlot will be located on a 200 acre tract leased from Kenneth Walker. Herrick said the actual pens will cover 120 acres.

He said feeding operation will begin with 12,000 head. The feedlot will have a capacity of

Income Tax Request Is Inadvertent

Canyon school tax office inadvertently distributed a few forms asking taxpayers to submit last year's federal income tax returns, according to Conway Kuykendall, manager of the office.

Kuykendall said the request was at the bottom of a form explaining the state constitutional amendment which provides that certain agricultural land be taxed only as is compatible with the purpose for which it is being used.

"Only six or seven were handed out before I caught it and had the request trimmed off the form," said Kuykendall.

The amendment stipulates that the land in question be used for agricultural purposes and that the owner be a bonafide farmer getting the bulk of his income from agriculture.

Kuykendall says he sees no reason to ask for a taxpayer's income tax return.

"I don't think there will be a situation where we can't sit down and get together," said Kuykendall.

Fun Seekers Set Records

A record number of Easter picnikers, boating enthusiasts and egg hunters swarmed to Buffalo Lake Sunday.

Refuge Manager Gordon Hansen said traffic counters recorded a total of 14,460 visitors to the Lake area.

Officials at Palo Duro Canyon State Park said some 9,000 visited the park, including 500 who attended Easter Sunrise Services in the Pioneer Amphitheatre.

A total of 1,091 visited the Panhandle Plains Historical Museum Sunday, records show.

MAJOR RAYMOND HADDOCK was one of the American "pied pipers" serving with Advisory Team 54 of the United States Army until his recent return to the states. Haddock is pictured with a group of Vietnamese people in a photograph by Armond Noble of Bakersfield, California, who is still working in Vietnam.

Major Like Pied Piper To Vietnam Youngsters

BY LORENA MILLER

"It is like being the 'Pied Pier' in Vietnam," says Major Raymond Haddock of his experiences with the people in that war-torn country.

Haddock is a brother of Mrs. S. W. Blake of Canyon.

"The children swarm all over Americans, because they (the Americans) are friendly and have a ready smile," commented Major Haddock.

"After you visit a village once or twice, the people realize that they can trust you," Haddock said.

Haddock has recently returned from a year's tour of duty in Vietnam where he was stationed with the United State Army's Advisory Team 54. Haddock and his "team", which consisted of a lieutenant and a major, served as advisors to the district chief on military and civil matters.

As advisor to Kien Thanh District, Haddock worked with an estimated 120,000 Vietnamese people. His district was composed of eight villages and 22 islands in the Gulf of Thailand on the southwestern side of Vietnam. The district is located in Kien Giang Province.

"We were there as advisors to the district chief," said Haddock explaining that on the military level his job consisted of removal of the Viet Cong influence and securing the villages.

"Removal of the Viet Cong often entails their destruction or capturing them," said Haddock. "When a village has been secured then we set about developing and rebuilding when necessary."

"Viet Cong don't necessarily ravage or destroy the villages when they are present," explained Haddock. "The Viet Cong look just like the Vietnamese. The only difference is their ideals. It would be just like the war between the north and south, if they didn't have distinguishing uniforms."

"In developing and rebuilding a community," said Haddock "our job was to provide for public facilities such as hospital dispensaries, mid-wife services, schools and teachers, and to aid in teaching improvements

Most Candidates In Trustee Race

Six Randall County residents will vie for two at-large seats on the Canyon Independent School Board of Trustees in an election Saturday.

Those who have tossed their hats into the ring include incumbent J. O. Parker, Richard Pruett, Marshall Rockwell, Harold Erwin, John E. Albers and Fletcher Sims, Jr.

Polls at both the Gene Howe Elementary School and the American Legion Building here will be open from 7 a.m. until 7 p.m.

Voters may cast their ballots at either of the polling places.

Albers, who was born in Randall County, graduated from Canyon High School and received a BS degree in mechanical engineering from Texas Tech.

He has eight children. They include Beth, who graduated from CHS last year; David, a CHS senior; Jim, a CHS student; Larry, in CJHS; Katherine and Joan, who are students at Rex Reeves; and Nancy and John, who are pre-schoolers.

Albers is a member of the Faith Lutheran Church of Amarillo and the Randall County Taxpayers League.

He is a farmer who specializes in hog raising.

Erwin graduated from CHS and from West Texas State University where he received a BS in mathematics.

The Erwin's three children are David, 15; Tracy, 11; and Lisa, 6.

Erwin is a member of the Baptist Church and the Randall County Farm Bureau.

He is a farmer-rancher in the area.

Parker, the only incumbent in the race, has been a farmer and rancher in the area for more than 30 years.

He attended Canyon Public Schools and graduated from New

Chamber Urging City Expansion

Canyon Chamber of Commerce is urging the city commission to move quickly in annexing areas to the north of the present city limits.

This announcement was made Monday night as the Chamber board heard reports from two committees.

The committee on community development said it would "actively work for and support a program of annexation to the city limits of Canyon as much land area as allowed by the state statute of Texas north of the present city limits of Canyon."

The committee also has agreed to work for the widening of Fifth Avenue from 16th Street to 23rd Street and Third Avenue from 14th Street to 23rd Street.

Members of the committee agreed to support a program to provide additional parking space on the east, north and west sides of the courthouse square.

The committee will support improvement of the city zoning

Canyon Trail Group Rides Suggested

A group of horsemen Tuesday checked out a proposed trail ride route in Palo Duro Canyon State Park.

A joint meeting of committees representing Canyon Chamber of Commerce and the Amarillo Chamber last Thursday agreed upon a proposed route, subject to approval of park officials.

Canyon people in on the discussion were R. B. Allen, Blaine Hufnagle, and Jack Walker, all members of the Randall County Sheriff's Posse. Also present were Jerry Mullican, park superintendent; and Roland Black, Canyon Chamber manager.

The route selected begins at the turn-around in the park and goes south into the area of the

Clause Deleted From Contract

Randall County commissioners court Monday afternoon renewed a fire fighting pact with the city of Canyon.

The contract runs until 1969.

The court struck two paragraphs from the contract this year dealing with responsibility of the county when firemen are fighting fires outside the city limits.

These paragraphs put responsibility on the county for injuries sustained by firemen and for property damage on out of town fires.

Commissioner Bill Butler, himself an insuranceman, said the paragraphs put undue responsibility on the county.

Firechief Jim Christopher told the court that the city's insurance on the firemen would be valid when the fire department is outside the city fighting fires. He said he had no objection to striking the two paragraphs.

During the past year the county paid Canyon $10,900, Amarillo $3,300, Happy $900 and Wildorado $200 for fire fighting.

Commissioners set the county tax rate at $1.45 per $100 valuation on the basis of 12 1/2 percent of assessed valuation.

Zoning Is Discussed

Marvin Springer, urban planning consultant of Dallas, was to have met last night with Zoning and City Commissioners to discuss zoning in the northern portion of Canyon.

At a joint meeting of the commissions recently, the possibility of rezoning an area from 2nd Avenue and 15th Street north to US Highway 60 from residential and industrial to commercial was discussed.

The groups also considered going west from US 60 to 11th

Possession of land and houses and cattle and machines is good; to be possessed by them is bad.

Drouth, Insects Hit Wheat Crop

Dry weather, wheat mites and greenbugs are all contributing factors that create dim prospects for Randall County dryland farmers, said County Agent John Brazzil.

Canyon has received only 1.29 inches of moisture thus far this year--about one-half the average amount.

Dr. M. B. Measamer, head of the West Texas State University Geography Department who compiles weather information here, said Canyon received .76 inches of moisture Friday night.

Although moisture in the county is indeed scarce, Brazzil said one of the primary reasons for the failing wheat crop was the greenbug.

The small green insect is a member of the aphid family and has had excellent weather conditions to aid in its reproduction.

The female insects are self-fertile and mature within three days to give birth to living young. There are no male greenbugs in Texas, Brazzil said.

As a result of this short reproductive cycle, heavy infestations can develop rapidly, he stated.

"The major predatory insect of the greenbug is the lady beetle larvae," Brazzil said. "This larvae is present now but since the greenbug received a big start during cold weather

Babe Ruth Tryouts Are Today

Tryouts for Babe Ruth League will be held today, Thursday, at Little League Park beginning at 4 p.m. according to JoZach Byrd, player agent.

All boys who will be 13 years before August 1 and not more than 15 are eligible to participate.

All boys desiring to play ball during the spring and summer who are not already assigned to a team should bring their glove, baseball and tennis shoes for the tryouts.

Gidden Heads Industrial Fund

Members of Canyon Industrial Fund elected Joe Gidden president at an organizational meeting last Thursday afternoon.

Gidden represents Southwestern Public Service Company.

Elected to have representatives as vice presidents were First National Bank and Thompson's of Canyon. First National Bank is represented by Bill Adams. Clarence Eugene Thompson represented Thompson's.

West Texas State Bank, represented by David Levens, was named secretary-treasurer.

Earlier a board had been named with members of the industrial fund casting one vote for every $100 pledged. Firms rather than people were named to the board.

Named to the board with staggered terms were Southwestern Public Service Company, 2 years; First National Bank, 3; Neblett Clinic, 3; Davis Agency, 3; Thompson's of Canyon, 1; LaGrone Funeral Chapel, 1; West Texas State Bank, 2; and the city manager was made an ex-officio member of the board.

Members of the industrial fund cast one vote for each $100 contribution to the fund.

Gidden announced that $32,500 has been pledged to the fund, the primary purpose of which is to secure industry for Canyon. There are 23 contributors.

The city of Canyon has pledged $10,000 to be paid over a five-year period.

FROM THE CANYON RIM

There's been a lot of publicity about the CIA using students and others to represent this country abroad.

I've been waiting for someone to tell us what's wrong with it.

The American Legion Magazine this month asks the same question.

"What's wrong with it?"

"By and large the loudest and most inarticulate screams against students serving their country seemed to come largely from sources that never batted an eyelash at the enlistment of students to do their country harm," says ALM.

"It makes us feel terribly out of date when we fail to dig why acts that border on treason rate applause, while national service evokes cries of horror, and it is righteousness itself to give unusual freedom to Soviet espionage here," the magazine went on.

A half century ago next Sunday President Woodrow Wilson asked Congress to declare war on Germany and this country has not been the same since.

The message changed the US from a horse and buggy nation of the Nineteenth Century to a Twentieth Century world power. The country reluctantly accepted a role as a world leader. Even now with the problems of half the world on its shoulders the US still seems to be reluctant about world leadership.

"America is privileged to spend her blood and her might for the principles that gave her birth and happiness and the peace which she has treasured," President Wilson told a joint session of Congress that bleak Monday.

"God helping her, she can do no other," he concluded.

The President received a standing ovation. He returned to the White House where he told his secretary, "My message today was a message of death for our young men. How strange it seems to applaud that."

The President put his head on his arms on a table and wept bitterly.

Wilson the pacifist, Wilson the humanitarian had launched his country into one of history's bloodiest conflicts.

Letter To The Editor

Editor,
Canyon News,
Canyon, Texas.

Dear Sir:

A very sore spot with most people, the request for copies of last years income tax, made by the Canyon School District, could easily be eliminated.

An amendment was endorsed by the people of Texas last fall to limit taxing agencies to taxing agricultural land to only the agricultural value. The question of the owner's primary occupation as it relates to taxing of this property will undoubtedly be settled in the courts, so why open the door to this unwarrented prying and the inequities this would bring about? Agricultural land should, and certainly could here in the Canyon School District, be taxed only on the basis of its agricultural value.

You will note that the Bill of Rights, Article IV states, "The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated. . . .". This makes it indelibly clear that this decision, an administrative one I've learned, should be rescinded immediately.

Very truly yours,
Fletcher Sims, Jr.

Eagles Blast Bovina 15-1

Sophomore Jerry Lehnick pitched a masterful one-hitter and received strong hitting support from his teammates in leading the Canyon Eagles to their first win of the year, a 15-1 triumph over Bovina.

Lehnick went all six innings, striking out nine while giving up only one run, one hit, and a walk. The game was shortened to six innings when Canyon claimed a margin of over ten runs.

The Eagles did not get on the scoreboard until the third inning, but they then jumped into a 5-0 lead. Canyon increased the lead to 9-1 in the fifth before moving to the 15-1 count in the sixth.

The Eagle batting heroes were many. Lon Conner, another sophomore, had a perfect day at the plate with a double and two singles in a three-for-three performance.

Don Howard and Frank Williams swatted homeruns, while Conner, Williams, Joe Moore, and Max Sunderman each scored two runs.

Galen Davis and Yogi Rossi each knocked a double.

Coach Wayne Turley substituted almost an entire new team in the fourth inning, but the score continued to mount.

Turley expressed particular satisfaction about his pitcher. "Lehnick pitched a real fine game!" he praised. The victory was Lehnick's only decision of the year, giving him a 1-0 record.

Team members are, kneeling, Denny Porter, Martin Barrow, and Tommy Barrow, and standing, Frank Self, Bill Rice, Bill Hart, and Ricky McLemore.

Eagle Teams Enter Relays

Canyon High School will send teams in three sports to compete in the annual Amarillo Relays this weekend.

Canyon will enter the huge, two-day meet in track and golf, and will be represented by both boys and girls teams in tennis.

Only the track team was active last week, as the Eagles copped seventh place in competition against teams from three states in the Perryton Invitational.

Charles Bussey led Canyon to 26 points, as he took second place in the pole vault and anchored the 440-yard relay team to a third place finish to personally account for 12 points.

Other members of the 440-yard relay team were Dana Reynard, Bob Wood and Phil Swatzell.

Canyon's mile relay copped fifth place on the efforts of Bussey, Wood, Jim McBroom and Stan James.

Also picking up points were Lon Conner with a sixth place in the 880 and James with a sixth in the 330 intermediate hurdles.

Guymon, Okla., won the meet with 105 points, narrowly shading Borger's 101. District 1-AAA teams competing were Dumas, third with 84, and Perryton, sixth with 26 1/2.

New Check System Begins Sept. 1

BY WAYNE BOARD

Federal Reserve Banks will not process checks after Sept. 1 which do not bear magnetic ink symbols of the writer's bank.

This means that Canyon's two banks will no longer be able to honor "drafts" or those checks which have been altered.

The magnetic ink symbols, located at the lower left hand corner of checks, are used to route the checks through high-speed computers.

Federal Reserve officials, in a press release, note that with magnetic ink symbols the high-speed computers sort checks at a rate of more than 60,000 per hour.

Without the symbols, checks must be handled on low-speed machines at a rate of only 1,500 per hour.

The officials have requested that stores withdraw all counter checks and have encouraged the establishments to refuse to cash checks which do not have the magnetic ink symbols.

The new restriction on handling nonpreprinted checks will mean slower collection for this type check and a more costly collection process.

In effect, the nonpreprinted check will be handled as a non-cash collection, meaning that credit cannot be given the receiver of the check until it has been completely processed through the drawer's bank.

Officials at both banks here said they would be available as speakers to organizations in Canyon to help explain the changes.

Man Hurt In Accident

An 18-year-old Hereford man was taken to Neblett Memorial Hospital here Wednesday morning following a two-car accident at US 60 and State Highway 217.

Victor Garza, of 500 Irving in Hereford, was treated for a minor arm injury and was released.

Garza, an employee of Southwest Offset in Amarillo, was traveling east when his 1962 model pickup truck was in collision with a 1960 model automobile driven by Charles Hubert Friemel, 60, of 1115 Creekmere here. Friemel was travelling south when the accident occurred.

Canyon Police Officer Dale Fortune estimated damages to the Garza vehicle at $900 and damages to the Friemel automobile at $750.

Area Journalists Set Meet Saturday

Approximately 250-300 area high school and junior high students are expected to attend the annual Panhandle High School Press Association meeting Saturday on the campus of West Texas State University.

Headquarters will be at the Student Union Building on campus with registration slated from 8:30 until 9 a.m.

Highlight of the day's events will be a speech on "Vietnam Today" by Bob Izzard, newsman for KGNC television, who has recently toured the battlefront in Vietnam.

Izzard's address will be given at the general assembly meeting at 10:30 a.m. Presiding at the assembly will be Gary Story of Hereford High School, current president of the PHSPA.

Morning activities will be various workshop sessions with a number of noted lecturers including Mary Kate Tripp, librarian for the Amarillo Globe-News who will speak on "feature writing"; Elizabeth Hurley, director of publications at Pampa High School, who will discuss "editorial writing"; Don Williams, city editor of the Amarillo Globe-News, who will present "news writing"; Tommy Bryant, sports editor of the Amarillo Globe-News, who will give "sports writing"; Gort Rushmer, photographer for West Texas State University, on "photography"; and A. J. Reed and F. M. McCarty of News-Foto Publishing Company in San Angelo, who will conduct the workshop on "yearbook production".

The noon luncheon will feature a talent contest and afternoon activities will include the election of new PHSPA officer, the presentation of awards and trophies to outstanding area high school papers and yearbooks; and individual writer awards in various fields.

The Dorinda E. Bond award, sponsored by The Amarillo Globe-News, will be awarded to the outstanding Panhandle area high school journalist.

News Brief

SEVERAL CANYON folks were tourists recently at Hodges Gardens, a historic site, located between Shreveport and Lake Charles, Louisiana.

The garden is 4,700 acres of formal gardens, lakes, outdoor theater, bird and wildlife sanctuary and stems from a reforestation program and research.

Those touring from Canyon were Mr. and Mrs. James Veale, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Frank, Judy Kay, Mary Anne and Eva, all of Canyon.

Going somewhere? Or been? The Canyon News wants to know about it--and so do its readers.

Also recommended is the widening and improvement of 15th Street from Fourth Avenue to Hunsley Hills Addition.

Recommended is a traffic count by the Texas Highway Department at Ninth and Tenth Avenues and 23rd Street and at 25th Street and Fourth Avenue to determine the possible need for traffic control lights.

The group will work for and support county zoning for Randall County.

The community development committee is headed by A. L. Crossland.

The agriculture committee, headed by JoZach Byrd, has a six-point program.

It will promote and sponsor a farm chemical seminar for Texas Panhandle area farmers in February of 1968. It will work for an agronomy symposium here next October.

The committee will promote a farm safety week and will work for and support a Southwest pork symposium. It will continue to support the Randall County Junior Livestock Association.

It will work for the assignment of an assistant county agent to assist Agent John Brazzil. The possibility of hiring a West Texas State University student for this post will be explored.

Chamber Manager Roland Black said plans call for afarm equipment demonstration day September 9 as a part of afarm safety program. Equipment companies will be invited to demonstrate their farm equipment.

A cooking school may be held in conjunction with the demonstration day.

Black said a meeting for city real estate and building people has been told that WT will have a gain of 20 new professors next fall.

The Chamber Monday night endorsed the Walter Knapp bill, a bill now before the legislature calling for Randall County to have a separate district court.

Members of the board took note of a Grady Hazlewood Texas Senate bill calling for a separate board of regents for West Texas State.

Annual Chamber banquet was set for the night of Jan. 11.

The Chamber legislative committee is scheduled to attend a luncheon meeting Friday at the Amarillo Club at which Rep. Bob Price will be present.

A group from the Chamber is slated to meet with D. C. Greer, Texas Highway commissioner, in Austin to talk about a scenic road through Palo Duro Canyon.

of agriculture and livestock."

"We train the Vietnamese people to do the job themselves," explained Haddock adding that the United States provides hybrid seed, breeding stock, fertilizers and other necessary articles at a minimal price.

"We train the Vietnamese people who are susceptible to learning the trade of teachers and mid-wife and then they are returned to their home village to serve," said Haddock.

"I found the Vietnamese people to be very dignified, sincere and friendly," said Haddock. "They have a strong desire for education of their children and their hopes and desires are similar to my own."

"They want a fairly decent house to live in, an education, peace and security for themselves and future generations," stated Haddock. "They really aren't much different from the average American in that respect."

"The Vietnamese people are receptive to American advisors and appreciate their support in the struggle for freedom of their government," said Haddock.

Among his souveniers from Vietnam, Haddock has several letters written to him at Christmas time by Vietnamese children which express the feelings of both the children and their parents' beliefs. Excerpts from several of these letters follow:

My dear brother,

The Christmas Day is coming. We wish you good luck on they way to fight against V. C. You were a brave man coming here to help the VN people. You sacrifice your life for my country. Thanks to your presence we have a good living condition. Every night when I hear the sound of the gun, I think that you kill the VC aggrssor. We always angry with VC, because they kill so many the innocent people. We hope that with your gallant spirit, our country will get peace soon.

My dear brother,

In occasion of Christmas holiday, I have time to write to you.

I still remember one evening ago that it rained so hard when I say you carry weapon and come across the dangers and difficulties of rice field. I thank you a lot for coming here to fight against the VC foe for my own country.

Thanks to your presence, we have a secure district. So when I hear the sound of the gun, I worry about you very much. If you do not come to help VN, you would stay and enjoy with your family at this time. Thanks to your presence the countryside will also get a Merry Christmas.

My dear brother,

We are very happy to see you struggle in our country and you do your best. We are grateful to you. Thanks to your presence in VN, we have a secure area and have a school to study. We know that you fear us danger and difficulties. We still small, but we also angry with the blood thirsty of the VC.

We wish you good luck and Merry Christmas.

The foregoing letters were written by primary grade students and according to Haddock aptly explain the feeling that the Vietnamese children have for the Americans. The letters also reflect the parental ideas in the homes of the country.

In describing the country of Vietnam, Haddock said that many parts of the country are reminders of the islands of the south seas. They are lush with vegetation including natural palm trees, coconut trees and banana trees.

"The rice paddy farms are just back of the trees along the canals," explained Haddock. Canals are primarily manmade and serve as a major source of transportation in Vietnam.

"The canal is the principal source of water. It is also used for waste disposal, washing and bathing," said Haddock. "During the rainy season, water is also caught in pails as it drips from the rooftops."

Haddock said that his district was primarily flat land with very few hills. Homes are congregated into small villages and are made of thatched palm leaves and grass with dirt floors.

Soldier housing areas are built similar at the edge of the villages according to Haddock. There are no country homes.

"Fish and rice are a mainstay of the Vietnamese diet," said Haddock adding that poor breeds of hogs, cattle and chicken are also available in the country.

"The livestock situation is gradually being corrected due to our introduction of good breed stock in these animals," said Haddock.

"Most of the people in Vietnam speak Vietnamese or Cambodian," said Haddock. "Some speak French but even fewer speak English, so it is necessary to learn their language to communicate."

With the addition of schools, which numbered 25 under Haddock's supervision, the students are gradually being instructed in English.

"They are now teaching English in the high schools," said Haddock. "And I personally taught English classes several nights each week. The classes were both an opportunity to teach English, as well as learn the Vietnamese language better myself."

While Haddock was stationed in Vietnam, his wife, Bruni, and three children, Ralph, 6, and twins, Ronald and Karen, 2, were in Germany with her parents.

Haddock is a graduate of Canyon High School and West Texas State University. He formerly worked as assistant and scoutmaster with Troop 66 in Canyon for about eight years.

While in Canyon on leave, Haddock and his family are visiting with his sister, Mrs. Blake. His next post will be at Fort Carson, Colo.

when the lady beetle could not reproduce, the greenbug has the advantage."

Greenbug infestation, often reaching populations of several thousand per foot of row, uses sucking mouth parts to penetrate the wheat plant and extract juices.

During this process toxic substance is injected into the wheat plant. This substance causes the wheat plant to turn yellow.

Parathion, a highly toxic insecticide, is being sprayed on irrigated acres, but it has a very short residue period. Aerial application is recommended since there is a hazard connected with parathion use unless the applicator is properly protected.

Dryland producers do not generally evaluate their wheat prospects as promising enough to invest in control measures.

The greenbug reaches very low populations during the summer, Brazzil said, but they manage to survive on volunteer wheat and on wheat grasses which commonly grow around lakes.

"With the coming of fall and winter cool weather and another wheat crop, the cycle is repeated," Brazzil declared.

No satisfactory or economical control has been discovered for the brown wheat mite. The best control measure for the mite, Brazzil added, is a general rain.

"Randall County is not alone in facing poor prospects for a small grain crop," Brazzil continued. "A big part of Texas is in this same condition. Major portions of the winter wheat area in the southwestern states now faces dwindling prospects. The large acreage of irrigated wheat in the Texas Panhandle and in adjacent states still has an opportunity to make a good crop."

Randall County has an estimated 20 to 30 thousand acres of irrigated wheat. Dryland acreage is about 100 thousand acres, he said.

Anyone who owns an Old English Sheep Dog is asked to call or write Brantley or William A. Moore at the WTSU speech department. The phone number is OL5-7141, Extension 2224. Brantley's home address is 2600 9th Ave., Canyon; Moore's address is 2508 12th Ave., Canyon.

"We are not looking for a trained animal," explained Brantley. If owners fear the excitement of a theatre performance would be upsetting for their dog, Brantley says that a veterinarian has offered to prescribe tranquillizers for the animal. The drugs have no unpleasant after-effects. "Infact, it should be a nice, yawny experience for the dog," said Brantley.

The University will be happy to pay room and board for the animal at a nearby kennel or to transport the dog to and from his home, said Brantley.

The court voted to retire $30,000 worth of county warrants out of the road and bridge fund.

County Judge Lloyd King tentatively was named to go to Washington, D. C., next week as the county's representative to a conference on councils of government. Members of the court were invited to the conference by Vice-President Hubert Humphrey.

The court was notified that Armstrong County commissioners would like to see a judicial district made up of Randall, Deaf Smith and Armstrong Counties.

South Amarillo Lions Club sent a club resolution to the court calling for three district judges seated in Amarillo with all three having dual jurisdiction in Randall County.

Judge King noted that the courthouse needs a new annex.

"Maybe this is the year to think about it and act on it," the county judge declared.

The county will complete payment of $320,000 worth of E-Way warrants in 1969 and will retire the E-Way bond issue in 1970, according to Commissioner Glenn Dowlen. Money now being used for retiring these could be used for building, he declared.

Commissioners agreed to purchase an Allis - Chalmer tractor for Precinct 2 at a cost of $2,958 with trade in. Seven firms submitted bids two weeks ago Monday.

The court received a letter of appreciation from people of Mescalero Park via K. C. May, superintendent of the Santa Fe Railroad Plains Division. The letter was signed by a number of people expressing gratitude for the installing of a flasher system at Haney, in the area of Mescalero Park.

A Canyon Chamber of Commerce group promoting a scenic drive for Palo Duro Canyon met with the court as did a group of businessmen about to put in a feedlot northwest of Canyon.

Black said the trail ride route also will be checked by helicopter.

The trail ride will be for large organized groups. Members of these groups may either furnish their own horses or rent them in the canyon.

Several short trail rides are being planned by park officials. These will be of about two hours duration.

Manure fertilizer will be readily accessible to the farmers of the area, Herrick continued.

Run off from the pens will be used for irrigation.

Herrick said he hopes the feedlot will be ready for use by Jan. 1, 1968. The facility will be built at a cost of $500,000. Construction will begin within the next two months, Herrick said.

Canyon attended a Texas Industrial Commission seminar in Austin two weeks ago.

Harry W. Clark, head of the commission, told the group that Canyon has some of the best industrial sites in the state. He pointed out the fact that some of these sites front on a highway and have rail at their back. He said this is ideal for industry.

Clark also told the group that the best industrial expansion a community can do is to help expand industries already in the community.

CHS Choirs Seek Funds

April is fund raising month for the Canyon High School choirs, according to Miss Linda Adams, sponsor.

Proceeds raised from various projects will be used for spring functions of the choirs.

Two projects will be held Saturday, April 1, by the choirs including a bake sale which will begin at 9 a.m. at Cooper's Market and operation of the KuKu Burger Bar throughout the day.

CHS Drama Emphasizes 'Teamwork'

"Teamwork and working together on projects is the basis for a successful drama and speech department," says Eddie Thomas, instructor in speech at Canyon High School.

Thomas who is instructing for his first year at Canyon High School has a varied background in fine arts. He earned his bachelor's degree from West Texas State University, did graduate work at California State in drama and also worked on the graduate level in psychology at University of California in Los Angeles. Thomas later taught in the neuropsychiatric section at UCLA.

Returning to Texas, Thomas last spring taught at Amarillo College and during the summer was cast in the role of Calvin Armstrong in the summer production of "TEXAS" produced by the Texas Panhandle Heritage Foundation.

Thomas' classes and the Drama Club at CHS includes working with some 100 youths. He also teaches a class of accelerated English students.

"We work on forensics, extemporaneous speaking and assignments of this sort throughout the year in preparation for district competition of the University Interscholastic League," said Thomas.

In connection with regular classwork, students are presently working on classroom "after - school" productions which will be judged and the best selections will be presented in performances for the public according to Thomas.

"This type of production is done almost entirely by the students," related Thomas. "They have a student director in charge of the show. They also build their own stage props, costumes and sets for the one-act plays."

"This is a training ground for our bigger productions like "Bye, Bye Birdie," said Thomas. "All students are given the opportunity to perform. We have a comedy slated to be presented this spring entitled "Mr. Angel".

Speech I classes deal with the overall picture of dramatics according to Thomas. It is an introductory course to speech and drama.

Speech II involves forensics, formal public speaking and beginning radio work. The Drama department involves a collection of previous experience and plans are afoot according to Thomas to increase the drama department to include a session for make-up instruction, stage crafts and scenery, movement or dance, and fencing for possible Shakespearean productions in future years.

"The whole department takes teamwork on the part on the school administration, students and other teachers who excell in their various fields such as the chorus, band, and arts and crafts," said Thomas.

"Drama and productions take a lot of extra work on the part of the students and teachers," said Thomas explaining that he has spent approximately 800 out-of-school hours working with the department this year in various productions.

"Sometimes the parents don't realize that when students are working over-time on a production they are really working," said Thomas. "They have to practice over and over to get the final effects and we open all of our practices to anyone who would like to visit."

"For instance in Bye, Bye Birdie we had about 150 kids try out for the dancing parts and we had to eliminate these students down to about 80 for the actual cast," said Thomas. "And since we don't have formal dance training we had to work the dance routines into an effective portion of the show."

Another interesting facet of the drama and speech department has been the preparation of marionettes for a "puppet show" to be presented in a travel course to local elementary schools and other benefit performances this spring.

"Work on the marionettes has been going on all year," said Thomas explaining that the students have made the various characters from scratch with supervision from the art department instructor, Mrs. Royal Brantley.

"Young performers must learn to give and take," said Thomas. "They must learn to work together as a team for the best show possible."

"With enthusiastic students and a staff behind them like we have at Canyon High School there is no limitations on what the kids can do in future years," said Thomas in conclusion.

GENIE KNIGHTON, left, and Cheri Riley held marionettes for an inspection by Eddie Thomas, drama and speech instructor at Canyon High School. The "puppets" will appear in several shows at local elementary schools and on benefit performances in the upcoming schedule for the Drama departments.

Cancer Drive Is Underway

About $700 has been collected in the business section of the Randall County Cancer Crusade, according to Jerry LaGrone and Joe Gidden, co-chairmen of the division.

The annual door-to-door campaign is slated to be conducted Thursday, April 13, with Tommy LaGrone chairman. Conducting the city canvas will be representatives from the four campus sororities under the direction of the Panhellenic Organization at West Texas State University.

Approximately 150 girls will be involved in the city canvas which will be held between 5:30 and 7 o'clock. An instructional session for sorority workers will be held April 10th.

Dr. Leta Boswell, county chairman, relates that "cancer's best friend is ignorance". The American Cancer Soceity emphasizes that annual check-ups by a physician and knowledge of cancer's danger signals are important to the early detection and cure of cancer.

Listed as the danger signals of the disease are unusual bleeding or discharge; a lump or thickening in the breast or elsewhere; a sore that does not heal; a change in bowel or bladder habits; hoarseness or cough; indigestion or difficulty in swallowing; or a change in a wart or mole.

The goal for Randall County's portion of the 1967 fund is $2,500 according to Dr. Boswell.

Machine Slips Off Truck Here

A ditching machine slid from a truck shortly before 8 a.m. Tuesday at 1600 Hereford Highway.

The driver, Gary Peterson, of 3107 Lynette in Amarillo, said he was turning west onto a E-way when a wheel broke on the truck and sent the ditcher tumbling to the pavement. The cab of the vehicle remained in an upright position.

Peterson, who was uninjured, said he was traveling to Santa Fe, N. M.

Delegation Meeting With Highway Boss

A delegation including several Canyon people were to meet today with D. C. Greer, State Highway commissioner, to discuss a scenic road through Palo Duro Canyon.

Support for such a road already has been evidenced by two commissioners courts of the five counties expected to be directly involved.

Joe Gidden led a Canyon delegation to Claude where Armstrong county commissioners bestowed their blessings Tuesday morning. The delegation then met with Randall commissioners Tuesday afternoon and received their approval.

Both Armstrong and Randall County commissioners stipulated that the approval was given only if farm to market road funds are not to be used in constructing the scenic drive.

Gidden pointed out that plans for the road are still in the formative stages and no route has been set.

"We are depending on the landowners involved to designate an acceptable route" declared Gidden. Counties which may be involved other than Armstrong and Randall are Briscoe, Hall and Donley, Gidden said. The drive is expected to be something near 60 miles in length.

"We feel that a scenic route such as this would enhance tourist development of the Panhandle and expose some of the most beautiful scenery in the state of Texas," said Gidden.

Gidden said it is hoped that the scenic road will connect with the existing road in Palo Duro Canyon and run from there eastward to some accessible point in Hall County.

The delegation making the trip to Austin for a conference with Greer include Gidden, Canyon Chamber of Commerce Manager Roland Black, Charles Allen, Pete Cowart, a representative from Amarillo Chamber of Commerce and Mayor H. L. Howell of Memphis.

Mayor Howell has long been a proponent of such a scenic drive.

No estimate on the cost of the scenic road has yet been worked out.

Field Day At Hinders Farm

Some 150 Future Farmers of America and approximately 75 adults will participate in dairy cattle judging contests at the Palo Duro Holstein Farms Saturday. The Farm is located 10 miles south east of Canyon.

The judging contests, to begin at 9 a.m. for the FFA group, will feature trophies for the top three teams and for the high nine individuals.

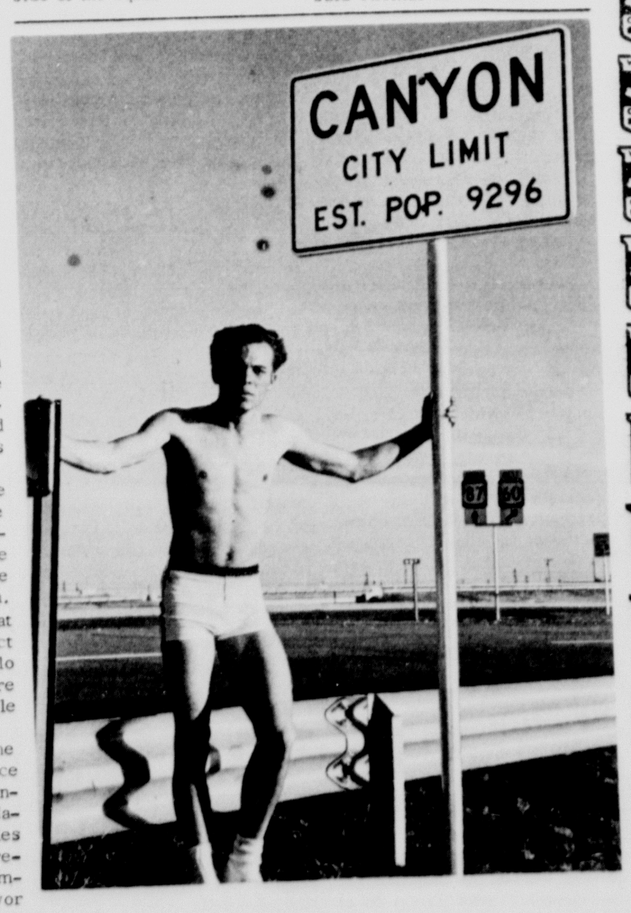
Contestants are expected from throughout the Texas Panhandle, western Oklahoma and eastern New Mexico, said Louis Hinders, Farm owner.

The adult division will begin at 10 a.m. and will feature trophies for the top four individuals.

The annual event, Hinders said, was expanded this year to include the adult division.

The adults will be conducted on a tour of the dairy following the judging.

Jim Edwards of Cushing, Okla., field representative for the National Holstein Freisian Association will be judge for the events.



MAX McCRUMMEN trotted 9.5 miles Monday afternoon from the city limit of Amarillo to the city limit of Canyon. It all came about when McCrummen's buddy bet him $5 he couldn't do it. McCrummen made the trip in 1 hour and 45 minutes. The loser was Glenn Larson, 18.

MRS. JOEL DOUGLAS REESE

Nuptial Rites Unite Miss Miller-Reese

Double ring marriage vows united Miss Nita Jo Miller and Joel Douglas Reese Thursday evening, March 23, at the First Baptist Church of Kress.

Rev. Cecil Foster officiated at the exchange of vows for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne G. Miller of Kress and the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Reese of Canyon.

Traditional wedding marches were presented by Mrs. Carol Stark, piano, and Mrs. Andrew Boggs, organ. The soloist, Mrs. Kenneth Hart, sang "I Love You Truly", "Whither Thou Goest", "Wedding Prayer", and "More Words", by Norman Newell.

The church was decorated with candelabra entwined with palm leaves. Blue roses and candles decorated the windows and blue bows accented the family pews.

Helana Ford of Wheeler served as the maid of honor and Nancy Reese, sister of the bridegroom, was the bridesmaid. Both were attired in blue linen street-length dresses tucked at the waist with blue bows and matching bows encircled with blue silk illusion. Accessories were of white and their bouquets of white carnations were long stemmed with blue satin streamers.

Gary Carver, Canyon, served as best man. Groomsman was Barry Wayne Miller of Kress, brother of the bride. Ushering were Larry Parsons and Steven Hines, both of Canyon.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white bridal satin designed by her mother. The waist was chantilly lace with a scalloped neckline outlined with seed pearls. The full length sleeves terminated in bridal points above the hands.

The full length skirt was accented with inverted pleats and had a row of lace appliques down the front pleat which was accented with pearls. The overskirt was circled like a chapel train with inverted pleats and the outer edge and pleats had lace appliques with seed pearl accents.

Her veil of bridal illusion was held by a pearl and crystal crown. The bride's bouquet was white gladioli encircled with feathered carnations in a cascade arrangement. She followed the traditional bridal custom with a blue garter, pearls and a penny in her shoe.

Following the ceremony, the couple was honored with a reception in Fellowship Hall of the church which was presented by the bride's parents. ℞ PARKINSON'S DISEASE IS NOT HEREDITARY

About one out of every one hundred people is affected by Parkinsonism. Because the chief cause is believed to be a decrease in the blood supply to the brain, a result of hardening of the arteries, their numbers will increase as people learn how to live longer.

Early symptoms are a tremor of one hand. Hand and foot movements slow up. Writing is more difficult. The mind is not affected. We have several different relaxant drugs which require a prescription. Early diagnosis and treatment is often effective in preventing more serious symptoms. But a physician must be consulted soon and regularly.

Morris Memorial Fund Is Started

BY DR. J. A. HILL

Sylvia Porter's syndicated article on College Loan Funds will probably be interesting and helpful to a few people in the older and more densely populated areas of the U. S., but we here in Northwest Texas have a far better program of financial aid to college students.

I refer, of course, to Buff Morris' Opportunity Plan which, in my opinion, is the most creative project that has come off a college or university campus in a generation. It needs to be better understood, even here at home. Are you acquainted with the following features of the Morris program? If not read the following.

1. It is a chartered organization, controlled by an unpaid Board of Directors of high standing.

2. It is supported by private contributions which are exempt from federal taxation.

3. Student loans do not carry interest charges or require co-signers.

4. It was established in the middle 1950's and has made loans to about 1600 students. Delinquent notes are less than 2%.

5. Loans over 4 years of college work and sometimes run as high as $4000 or more.

6. A strict system of bookkeeping is kept by the borrower and also by the lender.

7. When a student is accepted for a loan he or she and Morris or his representative work out a detailed budget which requires the student to apply for money to The Plan. If he obtains money from any other source it must be placed with The Plan to the borrower's account.

8. To protect The Plan from losses through the death of the borrower, Morris takes out a life insurance policy on each borrower and pays the premium annually. If the student dies before the loan is paid The Plan becomes the beneficiary to the extent of the balance due.

9. The books of The Plan are audited annually and reports are made to the state auditor.

10. The Plan keeps close track on the grades and the conduct of each borrowing student. If the report of a student is adverse in either respect he or she is called for a conference with a view to giving help. Under continued adverse reports The Plan may cancel the students contract.

11. Good character and sustained effort are the core of all student contracts.

12. The Opportunity Plan is being hailed from coast to coast and Morris is receiving applications from all parts of Texas and from several other states. He has been invited to both Austin and Washington for high official conference and other college and universities are calling him.

In view of these and other achievements the local people whose names are signed below are sponsoring a campaign to create a Milton and Cathryn Morris Memorial Loan Fund as a Division of The Opportunity Plan Inc. The Executive Committee of The Opportunity Plan Inc., has given enthusiastic approval to our campaign and Chairman, Mr. Harvey Allen of Amarillo has asked to be a member of our local committee.

Both the First National Bank and The West Texas State Bank of Canyon are depositories for this fund and are already receiving contributions. Don't wait to be asked to join the undersigned. Troy Martin, J. A. Hill, Chairman of Local Committee, Mrs. R. A. Neblett, Oscar Hinger, Dr. A. K. Knott, Mrs. J. A. Hill, Jack Jones, Mrs. T. V. Reeves, Tom Black, Harvey W. Allen, Amarillo, Dr. Leta N. Boswell, Vaughn Vandergriff, W. Mitchell Jones, Col. Henry Calder, Clifford Baker.

Coach To Be Honored With Coffee Friday

Dennis Walling, new head basketball coach at West Texas State University, will be honored with a coffee in the formal lounge of the university's Student Union Building on Friday.
